

HOT AIR WON'T BUILD A BRIDGE

Portsmouth wants that bridge. It does not care whose land is taken. The people are not interested in the silly and childish acts of our sick friend, Maine, New Hampshire and the Federal Government will have to perfect an organization to locate and build the bridge. The location will, of course, depend upon the result of borings to be made in the river. No real organization has yet been perfected. It is ten months since the State appropriated the money. The Herald is a newspaper and it proposes to print the news in the interest of the whole people regardless of whose toes are stepped on. Posing for pictures or any attempt to make the project a political football will not hasten the work.

LONGSHOREMEN ARE RAMPANT

TO PUNISH SLAYERS OF AVIATORS

DEMANDS ARE SUBJECT TO NEGOTIATION

(By Associated Press)

Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, at his home here, was not prepared early today to define the attitude of his organization toward the statement made Saturday by President Wilson that the strike of coal workers set for November 1st carried out, would not only be "unjustifiable, but unlawful." Mr. Lewis reiterated his statement that the 50-percent increase in wages demanded by the miners in subject is "subject to negotiation as are all demands of the men," but added, that the situation was in "status quo."

JENKINS HAS BEEN RELEASED BY BANDITS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 27.—Release of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, Mexico, who was kidnapped by bandits on Oct. 19, was effected by payment of the $150,000 in gold demanded by the captors, the State Department was advised today by the American Embassy at Mexico City. The dispatch did not make clear whether the Mexican government or friends of Jenkins paid the ransom. An inquiry on this point has been sent to Mexico City by the State Department. Official announcement of the release of Jenkins was made in the following statement by the Department: "William O. Jenkins, American consular agent who was robbed and kidnapped in Puebla, Mexico, on Oct. 19th, has been released following payment of ransom, according to a message from the American Embassy at Mexico City."

Senator Myers, Democrat of Montana, today had the Senate defer action on his resolution calling on the President to use the armed forces of the United States to rescue Jenkins and punish his captors. Mr. Myers said he desired to await confirmation of the release of Jenkins before pressing for action. Senator Pollock, Republican of Washington, suggested that Congress might appropriate a sum to be used in ransoming Americans captured from time to time by Mexicans.

Washington, Oct. 27.—William O. Jenkins, the American consular agent at Queda, who was kidnapped October 19 by Mexican bandits, was released after payment of ransom, the State Department was advised today by the American Embassy at Mexico City. Hanna, third secretary of the embassy, who was sent to Queda, reported yesterday that he had received a message from Jenkins sent from within the Mexican federal lines that the ransom had been paid to the kidnappers and that he was on his way to Queda.

$4,660 SEIZED AT RACE TRACK GOES BACK TO THE BETTERS

In the Municipal Court at Medford, poolsters caught in the raid at Compton Park, Medford, two weeks ago by the Watch and Ward Society, were fined. A fine of $100 was imposed on the principal, Samuel English of Rochester, N. H. A fine of $50 each was imposed on his five assistants, Daniel Bliss, Portland, Me.; Thomas L. Watson, Medford; George Brown, Hotel Evans, Boston; John B. Johnson, Rochester, N. H.; John Shea, Philadelphia.

The continuance of the case was allowed to permit the return of the amount of money seized to those who made the bet. The amount seized was $4,660.

Claims amounting to $4,660 have been received. This amount, according to Attorney William Miller, counsel for the defendants, tallies with the amount recorded in the books. Attorney Miller stated that the difference would be made up by his clients, also an additional amount would be furnished for defraying postage in mailing out the checks. Checks will be made out by Chief of Police John P. Welch of Medford.

In filing the men, Judge Bruce issued a warning that should the defendants or any others connected with them appear again in court on a similar charge, the fines would be $500 and $300.

HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATED LACONIA HIGH

The High school defeated Laconia High football team at the play grounds on Saturday afternoon by a score of 19 to 0. The locals played their best game of the season, they followed the ball closer and were free from fumbling. They showed fine work with the forward passes and were well after the ball in all of the punts.

The Laconia team defeated Concord High and have been playing a fast game, but against the locals they were repulsed. The first score should have been greater as Hilder had taken a punt in the last period and was on his way to the goal post when the referee's whistle blew. He crossed the line, and under the rules by which a play is completed before the whistle, takes effect should give the locals another overdrive, but the referee refused to allow it, claiming that the game stopped when his whistle blew.

In the last period, Captain Kirkpatrick sustained a dislocated collar bone and the injury will undoubtedly keep him out of the game for the remainder of the season. The loss of his services will be a serious handicap to the team which was striking a winning goal.

The line up:
Portsmouth High Laconia
Hurley, lb. re, Stafford
Varell, lb. t, Blomfield
Conover, lg. rg, Richardson
Redden, e. e, Kimball
J. Piper, rg. lg, Bagley

Score, Portsmouth 19, Laconia 0.
Touchdowns made by Kirkpatrick, 2. Rudder, goals from touchdowns made by Kirkpatrick. Substitutes, Alchei for Varelly, O'Leary for J. Piper, Young for Kirkpatrick, McDonough for Finnagan, Pilgrim for O'Leary, Green and Clark for Richardson, Referee, Allen, Umpire, Spring, Line men, Smith and Clough. Time, four 10-m. periods.

NO ANSWER FROM MINERS TO PRESIDENT

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 26—The whole country waited expectantly today for the miners' answer to President Wilson's blunt command that the proposed strike of the coal miners be called off.

There was not a word however to show where the United Mine Workers of America stood or what they would do in the event that the President's appeal that they call off the strike and keep the mines open was ignored.

Considering the temper of labor officials, Washington held the view that while there is hope that the 500,000 soft coal miners will respond to the President's fair appeal and half command, there is no telling how they will act. There seems to be no doubt of the government attitude that the peoples' rights will be kept guarded and that the mines will be kept open so that there will be no suffering for want of coal or any stopping of the nation's industries.

While naturally declining to discuss the future course of action members of the Cabinet indicated that the government would not sit by with folded hands and see the nation's industries blocked for want of coal.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 26—President Shee gave notice to Congress today that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen of which he was the acting president, would not observe the anti-strike legislation if it was made a law. He stated that the attempt to single out the railroad men for this law and to take from them their economic rights to strike to right their wrongs, was further evidence that the railroads were going to reduce wages as soon as released from government control and that this legislation was being enacted to help them keep the railroad men in line. He said such a law would start a revolution and it was the kind of a law that the radicals wanted so as to give them a talking point.

DEVASTATED FRANCE STILL NEEDS HELP OF AMERICAN COMMITTEE

The Portsmouth Branch of the American Committee for Devastated France which did such successful work last winter at its sewing meetings will again start its meetings for the coming winter next Thursday morning. Last year a meeting was held weekly and garments were made, considerable knitting done and 198 Christmas stockings were filled for the destitute children of France. The need in France continues great. The following from a letter received from Andre Tardieu, minister of Franco-American by the American committee and forwarded to the Portsmouth branch will give a good idea of the need and importance of this work:

"Does the French Government desire the American Committees to continue for some time still the work that has been given them to accomplish in the Devastated Regions?"

"To answer this question it is only necessary to know the situation of our unfortunate regions and the gratitude such committees as yours have received from them for the services these committees have rendered and the magnificent devotion they have shown.

"You know, as I know, the immensity and the complexity of the problem of reconstruction in our devastated country. You saw the condition of these regions at the time of their liberation; the roads and railroads destroyed; the bridges blown up; all the industries systematically annihilated; the agricultural material and the cattle taken into Germany; the homes razed; the people dispersed by the successive evacuations or weakened by years of suffering. You are able to understand what a formidable and agonizing task is incumbent on the French Government. This task is all the more difficult in that the regions which have to be reconstructed formed that part of France which was the richest and the most active.

"The problem has been rendered more difficult still by the very difficulty of these unfortunate people to their native regions. Their insistent haste to return to the ruins of their villages their touching determination to pick up again their lives or other things, have aggravated a very critical situation.

"It is true that the French Government has guaranteed to these suffering people the integral repatriation under certain conditions of the damages under which they have suffered. But the system established by law concerning the repatriation of the damages of war is necessarily complex and can function only slowly. The law will not go into full effect for many months and the reconstruction can be made only step by step. There is, therefore, between the urgency of the needs created by the return of the people of the invaded regions, and the means which the French Government has at the moment at its disposal, some gap that experienced initiative ought to fill in.

"We are counting on the American Committees not only to aid our unfortunate compatriots to endure the miseries of the period of transition but also to guide and counsel the people in the work of reconstruction itself. It is necessary, in short, in rebuilding the destroyed villages, that the inhabitants should be brought to realize the progress that has been made in material comforts and especially in hygiene. The authority which committees such as yours have acquired through their services and their direct contact with the people designates them particularly to fill this mission.

"These are the reasons for which the French Government very keenly desires that your committee, as all the American committees, should continue to accomplish the task that they assumed with so much devotion and to which the Government cannot attach too much importance and to accord to them their co-operation.

"Please adopt the expression of my most respectful homage."

SALVATION ARMY BUILDING IS DEDICATED

The Salvation Army on Sunday dedicated with appropriate exercises, the building on State street, which has now become its permanent home. Yesterday was Salvation Army Sunday in Portsmouth in recognition of the event and Salvation Army speakers were at five of the local churches, while Sunday afternoon at three o'clock a Salvation Army mass meeting was held at the Methodist church, which was tendered to this organization for the occasion.

The Salvation Army special gatherings began on Saturday evening with a rousing open air service on the square conducted by Major Widgery, assisted by Salvation Army officers from Portland and Boston. A concert was later given at Salvation Army hall, much of the program being given by the visiting officers.

On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the Salvation Army and visiting officers to the music of the band, marched to the various churches to escort the visitors who were to speak. Major and Mrs. Widgery and Captain Sullivan of Berlin, this state, the Irish tenor, took part in the service at the Middle Street Baptist church; Adjutant and Mrs. Perrell of Portland were at the Christian church; Adjutant and Mrs. Armstrong of Portland at the Advent; Adjutant Salzer of Boston at the Universalist and Captain Hood of this city at the Methodist, the Salvation Army band assisting.

The dedicatory services were held at 2 o'clock and were especially interesting. Arrangements had been made for a large out-door service in front of the building at which several local pastors were also to make addresses, but when the time came for the service there was such a down-pour that the meeting had to be held inside.

Major E. H. Widgery, the divisional officer for New Hampshire was in charge of the services assisted by the local officers, Captain W. J. Lawrence, Adjutant Armstrong of Portland, Adjutant Perrell of Boston, and Captain John Sullivan of Berlin, the Irish tenor. Adjutant Frank Butler of Boston read the dedicatory prayer of Solomon from the sixth chapter of II Chronicles. Prayer was offered by Rev. Elmer H. Newell, D. D. of the Methodist church.

The speakers were Governor John H. Bartlett, Mayor Albert H. Stapp and Major Widgery who is in charge of the Salvation Army of Northern New England. The army band furnished a food program. Governor Bartlett in his address praised the work of the Salvation Army in the world war and spoke of the good work it was doing at home.

A flag raising was one of the impressive features of the dedication exercises. Following the indoor meeting the gathering came to the front of the building and stood at attention while the Salvation Army band played the Star Spangled Banner as City Solicitor Jerry Waldron, Commander of the Frank E. Boone Post American Legion, raised Old Glory to the top of the Salvation Army building. Major Widgery paid a splendid tribute to the grand work of the order of Ellis in so strongly standing by the Salvation Army and making it possible through its splendid endorsement and hard work of raising sufficient funds to purchase the building, which was formerly the Peabody school. Lawrence, the local commander of the Salvation Army has had the building renovated inside and out and a great change in the appearance has taken place.

After the flag raising the Salvation Army marched to the Methodist church to the music of the band, where at three o'clock a mass meeting was held by the army. Major Widgery and Adjutant Perrell and Mrs. Armstrong, wife of Adjutant Armstrong, rendered vocal solos.

On Sunday evening a big united open-air service was held on the square. Captain Sullivan, the Irish tenor, whose solos are enthusiastically received, sang "Mother McCreary" by special request. At the conclusion of the service a splendid meeting was held in Salvation Army hall, conducted by Major and Mrs. Widgery, assisted by visiting officers. It closed at 9:30 o'clock after a number present had signified their intention to take the stand for Christ.

Repairing the Bridge

They Are Some Boats

People who have had the opportunity to inspect the Eagle boats at the navy yard agree that the Ford output is some craft. The quarters for the ship's crew are said to be ahead of anything the other ships of the navy have. Evidently Henry had the men in mind as well as all other things.

Hitting the White Cigars

While there are no outward signs of proof, it is nevertheless true, that cigarette smoking among the women of Portsmouth is on the increase. The habit is particularly strong among young girls who find their amusement not complete unless they can puff away at a "Jazzie."

Doing Some Barrel Making

It is understood that some local men who have followed the work of coopering for years for the several brewing companies, have engaged in the same work on their own hook at the West End. They propose to turn out receptacles for apples, cider, fish or anything that requires a barrel for transportation. They certainly have no eye for business and there is no reason why such barrels cannot be made in Portsmouth as well as anywhere, where the required stock is handy and where mechanics in this line are numerous and as good as any in the country. Such an industry ought to grow.

STORM STOPS MEMORIAL SERVICE

The heavy shower of Sunday afternoon stopped the annual memorial service at the Catholic cemetery scheduled to be started at two o'clock. The crowd had partially gathered and many hundreds more were on the way when the storm broke, and as there is very little, in fact no shelter in that section, many people were drenched.

The electric road ran extra cars and when the storm came, there was such a rush to get home the result was that the cars were literally jammed, with people and hundreds could not be accommodated. The service will probably be held at a later date.

CLOCKS SET BACK SUNDAY MORNING

The end of the Daylight saving went into effect at two o'clock on Sunday morning, when the clocks were set back one hour. They advanced in the spring. This gave about everybody an extra hour sleep, as everybody turned their clock back before going to bed. This will be the last time the clocks will be advanced as Congress had killed the daylight saving bill, although there is a strong movement to make it a law in many states. New York city has already passed a law adopting the daylight saving and others will follow.

GOOD BOUTS FOR MONDAY NIGHT

The Dover A. A. may make the boxing show at Quamphagan Park on Monday night the final performance of the season and are putting on some classy numbers. The ten-round contest between Young Drew of Lawrence and Battling O'Dee of Manchester will be one of the best matches made so far by the organization. Spider Murphy, another fast man from the Queen City meets Kid Chambers of Hildesford for ten rounds. These men have always done their bit to please the fans. Much interest, especially by Dover fans, is centered in the preliminaries when Bill Pollett of Dover shakes hands with Young Jack Dempsey. They will go four rounds. These two glove artists promise to make their work in the ring lively and will be busy all the time between bells.

MAKES APPEAL FOR ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL

The Roosevelt Memorial was given a good boost at the public services held on Sunday afternoon at the Colonial Theatre. The rain seriously interfered with the attendance, but there were several hundred people in attendance and they were all interested and it was an enthusiastic meeting.

The admirers of the late Col. Roosevelt in this city are numbered by the thousands, and his popularity was demonstrated by the size of the attendance for such a day.

The Naval band rendered a concert previous to the meeting and they gave in excellent form.

Mr. E. Curtis Matthews the treasurer of the Memorial Fund, opened the meeting and took the time to give a brief explanation of what the Memorial Association hope to do. He said that no definite quota had been set that Mrs. Roosevelt had one desire and that was the people of the country should give what they wished for she favored small subscriptions from many than large subscriptions from a few. The Association while they have definite plans of a memorial park at Washington and the erection of a Roosevelt fund for the education of the American youth, will be guided entirely by the subscription, and have no definite sum in sight.

Mr. Matthews introduced Mayor Albert H. Hildes, who made a brief address in which he expressed his sympathy with the idea of the memorial and hoped that the city would make a creditable showing, as they have in everything they have been asked to do of a patriotic nature and he considered this a very patriotic measure the perpetuation of the memory of one of America's greatest men.

Governor John H. Dummer delivered the principal address and he made an eloquent and forceful appeal to the people in behalf of the fund. He took for his theme one of the speeches of Col. Roosevelt early in the war in which he warned the people of the fact that were within the country, which was a greater menace than those without. He pointed out that this was being illustrated at the present time, in the radicals who were causing disorder, strikes and warring the red flag. He paid a high tribute to Col. Roosevelt and the fine example of his life to the American youth.

The closing speaker was Chaplain M. A. Farney, that friend of the regulars with many months service in France. He is a very brilliant and interesting talker and his subject was Roosevelt Americanism, which he stated was the one thing at present that the United States needed. Roosevelt was a living example of love for country and for all of the American traditions and in perpetuation of his memory the Association were creating something which would have a lasting effect upon the people of the country, especially the young.

A collection was taken up and pledged.

HEAVY SHOWER INTERFERED WITH MANY PROGRAMS

Rain on Sunday afternoon greatly interfered with the program which was laid out for the afternoon. The outdoor memorial service at the Catholic cemetery was stopped on account of the rain, the Roosevelt Memorial service attendance was cut down by the rain, the Salvation Army dedication was also badly effected by the rain. The outlook for the day was most promising, a mild temperature and a fine day for outdoor life, but shortly after one o'clock the wind hauled a little more south and the shower came up which turned into a steady rain.

PRESIDENT'S APPEAL FOR RED CROSS

Washington, Oct. 26.—As President of the United States and as President of the American Red Cross, I recommend and urge a generous response to the third Red Cross Roll Call which opens November the second with the observance of Red Cross Sunday and appropriately closes on November the eleventh, the first anniversary of the signing of the Armistice.

Twenty million adults joined the Red Cross during the war, motivated by a patriotic desire to render service to their country and to the cause in which the United States was engaged in war. Our patriotism should stand the test of peace as well as the test of war, and it is an intelligently patriotic program which the Red Cross proposes, a continuance of service to our soldiers and sailors who look to it for many things, and a transference to the problems of peace at home of the experience and methods which it acquired during the war.

It is on membership more than money contributions that the stress of the present campaign is laid, for the Red Cross seeks to associate the people in warfare work throughout the land, especially in those communities where neither official nor unofficial provision has been made for adequate public health and social service.

It is in the spirit of democracy that the people should undertake their own welfare activities, and the National Red Cross wisely intends to exert upon community action a stimulating and coordinating influence and to place the energies of the organization behind all sound public health and welfare agencies.

The American Red Cross does not purpose indefinite recolonization of its relief work abroad, a policy which would lay an unjust burden upon our own people and tend to undermine the self-reliance of the peoples relieved, but there is a necessary work of completion to be performed before the American Red Cross can honorably withdraw from Europe. The Congress of the United States has imposed upon the Red Cross a continuing responsibility abroad by authorizing the Secretary of War to transfer to the American Red Cross such surplus army medical supplies and supplementary and dietary food stuffs now in Europe as shall not be required by the Army, to be used by the Red Cross to relieve the distress which continues in certain countries of Europe as a result of the war.

To finance these operations, to complete work which was begun during the war, and to carry out some comparatively inexpensive constructive plans for assisting peoples in eastern Europe to develop their own welfare organizations, the American Red Cross requires, in addition to membership fees, a sum of money small in comparison with the gifts pouring into its treasury by our generous people during the war.

Both the greater enduring domestic program and the lesser temporary foreign program of the Red Cross deserve enthusiastic support, and I venture to hope that its peace-time membership will exceed rather than fall below its impressive war-membership.

SPORT NOTES OF INTEREST

Charles Watts, owned by Fred Churchill of this city, won the 227 mixed race at Yarmouth, Me., last week. The following is from the Portland Express:

"The light harness season in Maine closed yesterday at the Royal Silver track in Yarmouth with three of the best races that have been fought out in Cumberland county this season.

Every heat was a wire to wire battle and the duels for second and third money were as bitter as the spurs for the lion's share of the purses. The 227 class brought to the wire a field of five horses that worked so hard for every foot of ground that Charles Watts, the little bay trotter, owned in Portsmouth, N. H., was not declared the winner until just before sunset, when six heats had been raced.

Charles Watts, the little "mustang" trotter, who doesn't wear much rigging except his hide was a favorite to win the slow race, but he came very near spilling the beans. In the first heat he galloped and bucked all over the track and finished with the cash. He was noted up by the Brunswick mare, Miss Chickering, in the second, but turned the tables in the third. Going up the back stretch in the fourth, a sulky wheel collapsed, and he didn't finish at all but the judges placed him fourth. After that he came back strong and outlasted Miss Chickering and his young rival, "Three Bells."

Tonight at Manchester two good wrestling bouts have been arranged by Promoter Jim Poulter. The first match will bring together John Kilgus of Manchester, and Charlie Meigs of Boston. In the second bout, Peter Goulette, the "Bouncing Frenchman," will try and subdue "Wild Man" Joe Terrell.

Plenty of action is looked for between Nelson and Flynn when they meet in the feature bout at the Rockingham A. C. boxing tournament next Wednesday evening. Both boys are trained to the minute and ready for a rugged fight. The semi-final between O'Neill of Lynn and Johnny Marto of Boston, is another bout that spells action. The preliminary in one of the best ever held in this city. Local fans will like Young Chambers of Biddeford who boxes St. Hilaire of Somersworth. St. Hilaire is a boxer that is coming right along. All his bouts, however, have been at the South Berwick park and it will do him a lot of good in the line of experience to branch out and box in the different cities. He is a willing boy, a clean boxer and makes friends wherever he goes. Hilaire is sure to be well received in Portsmouth and will share the local popularity of Young Chamber of Somersworth, as popular a man as ever boxed in Portsmouth.

On account of the intense interest in the Nelson-Flynn boxing bout, Manager Dow announces that the club has engaged Jerry Moore, official referee for the Fenway club of Boston, to referee the bouts Wednesday evening.

A number of local sports went to Lawrence, Mass., Saturday afternoon to witness the "all-star" boxing show in that city, returning home Saturday night.

The Dover A. C. has a good boxing card arranged for this evening at Quamphagan Park and a number from this city will attend. In the main bout of ten rounds, Kid Drow of Lawrence will exchange wallop with Mattie O'Dee of Manchester. In the semi-final Solder Murphy of Manchester and Kid Chambers of Biddeford will furnish the fireworks. Young Chambers is making rapid strides in the mitt game and is in great demand by promoters.

WHY SHOULD I?

TURNABLE GOES BAD AT ROCHESTER

Accident Ties Up Traffic Early This Morning on B. & M.

The turntable of the Boston and Maine railroad at Rochester went out of commission early this morning by the breaking of a center pin and caused a general tie-up of traffic at that station. The motive department was obliged to send over two locomotives from Dover and one from Nashua for the various trains running out of that city. Employees of a local institution certainly made sure that the clock were set back on Saturday night. The first backward move of the hands of the time-piece was not enough to comply with the act of congress, but somebody else wanted to be sure the time recorder was correct on Sunday morning and gave it another sixty minutes' overhauling. The late reporting one hour behind the schedule, found some relief in the fact that the third period in this fact that the third period.

BOXING WEDNESDAY

What the Young Kibbo-Johnny Dundee lent was to Lawrence fans so is the Al Nelson-Paddy Flynn bout to Portsmouth fans. Everyone expects action galore from the tap of the gong which means a packed house Wednesday evening. Flynn seems to be the choice but Nelson is full of confidence as he has asked the club for a bout with Johnny Wilson after he stops Flynn's winning streak. On account of the intense interest in the bout the management secured the services of Jerry Moore of Boston to referee. Moore performs similarly at Lowell, Lynn and at the Fenway club, Boston. Lynch O'Neil of Lynn and Johnny Mario of East Boston will box the semi-final and Kid Chambers of Blaine and St. Albans of Somersworth will start the show.

Why You Should Buy Coal Now

The price of coal is 75 per cent determined by wages. The wage agreement at the mines continues until April 1, 1920. The Fuel Administration reports that 35 per cent of the mines cannot make any money at the present mine prices. In view of this, how can coal be cheaper this year?

WE ADVISE YOU TO PLACE YOUR ORDER NOW FOR COAL FOR NEXT WINTER.
